

KATIE SHARPTON

| PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Hands-on Family and Consumer Sciences Professional with four years of experience exposing youth and adults to real-life skills such as cooking, budgeting and sewing. In-depth knowledge of consumer and home-based activities. Skillful in assessing nutrition educators' abilities, developing innovative lesson plans and offering constructive feedback. Proficient in Microsoft Office and Zoom.

| ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- New Mexico State 4-H Leadership Team Advisor 2020-2021
- Served on the Gallup Community Pantry, Secretary/Board, 2017-2020
- Monthly articles for Gallup Journey Magazine

| WORK HISTORY

New Mexico State University Cooperative Extension - Family and Consumer Science/4-H Agent
Gallup, NM • 10/2017 - Current

- Develop, coordinate, and teach youth & adult diabetic, nutrition, and food safety classes.
- Oversee and supervise McKinley County Ideas for Cooking and Nutrition (ICAN) program and staff.
- Actively engages with community leaders in delivering educational programs.
- Plan and coordinate county, tribal, and state fairs for 4-H, as well as, district and state conferences.

| SKILLS

- Verbal and written communication
- Leadership
- Responsible
- Collaboration
- Planning and Coordination

| EDUCATION

Liberty University

Lynchburg, VA • 08/2017

Master of Public Health: Health Promotion

Samford University

Birmingham, AL • 05/2015

Bachelor of Science: Food and Nutrition

Snead State Community College

Boaz, AL • 05/2013

Associate of Science

| CERTIFICATIONS

- Certified in Youth Mental Health First Aid
- Lifestyle Coach for National Diabetes Prevention Program
- ServSafe

AFFILIATIONS

- National Extension Association for Family Consumer Science
- National Association Extension for 4-H Youth

Rehoboth Christian School - *Preschool Assistant Teacher and Substitute

Rehoboth , NM • 08/2015 - 08/2017

- Helped children's confidence and self-esteem by providing safe, loving environment.
- Assisted teacher by developing lesson plans to meet educational goals for each child.
- Communicated with parents to inform about child's progress and classroom behavior.

Volunteer

Creator's Fellowship- *Children's Ministry Director

Church Rock, NM *08/2015- Current

- Develop and conduct weekly lesson plans for children aged 4-14 year olds
- Collaborate alongside lead pastor and music director for summer camps.
- Engaged the youth and community in activities and events.