

AGENDA ITEM # 22

September 8, 1998

*

Discuss and take appropriate action on interlocal agreement with Leander Chamber of Commerce for surplus furniture.

Judge Doerfler advised the Chamber had contacted him requesting information on Williamson County surplus furniture. They looked at the surplus furniture and requested 2 office desks, 1 xerox copier, 1 sofa, 1 bookcase, office partitions and stackable chairs.

County Attorney Gene Taylor advised the county would need to receive something of equal value from Leander Chamber of Commerce in order to obtain the requested items.

When asked by Judge Doerfler attorney Terry Davis agreed to work with the Williamson County Attorney to resolve the matter.

Commissioner Mehevec suggested an interlocal agreement with Williamson County and the City of Leander allowing the city and chamber to work together for the items.

Moved: Judge Doerfler

Seconded: Commissioner Boatright

Motion: To move for approval when the Williamson County Attorney is satisfied with interlocal agreement.

Vote: Motion carried 5 - 0
