

AGENDA ITEM # 10

April 28, 1998

*

Discuss subdivision changes/revisions to current subdivision regulations.

Judge Doerfler advised that changes to the current subdivision regulations need to be discussed and decisions made concerning changes or additions to the regulations.

Commissioner Hays commented on changes concerning the 500 year floodplain.

Commissioner Heiligenstein suggested retaining someone to review the subdivision regulations, the more productive building areas of the county and would be objective on issues concerning water and wastewater and the amount of acreage concerning a septic system.

Commissioner Heiligenstein suggested there may be more authority in Senate Bill 1 than the county realizes.

Judge Doerfler suggested comments concerning subdivision regulations be written down and a possible workshop for these changes.

No action taken on agenda item at this time and will be on May 5, 1998 agenda.
