Hear comments from Commissioners.

Commissioner Boatright stated he understood area residents frustration over the type of development in the county but he felt members of Commissioners Court would have cost the tax payers a lot of money if the court had not voted as they did this morning.

Judge Doerfler agreed with Commissioner Boatright.

Commissioner Mehevec asked if the Taylor annex bid was planned for award in the near future.

Judge Doerfler advised an item to award will be on the agenda for August 25, 1998.

Commissioner Mehevec reiterated his strong feelings of the safety and health issue for the Westridge Subdivision area residents but he respected the Judge and Commissioners votes.

Judge Doerfler advised he did not disagree with the health and safety issue but it was a completely separate issue from the plat approval process.

Judge Doerfler distributed information on 1998/9 budget.

COMMISSIONERS COURT ADJOURNED AT 12:25 P.M. ON TUESDAY AUGUST 18, 1998.
