and at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following:

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas, is proud to honor the 4-H Youth Development Program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for 90 years of providing experience-based education to youngsters throughout the Lone Star State; and

WHEREAS, This admirable program, which seeks to provide a learning experience for the whole child, including head, heart, hands, and health, helps young Texans to acquire knowledge, develop life skills, and form attitudes to enable them to become self-directed, productive, and contributing members of our society; and

WHEREAS, It's 602,000 urban, suburban, and rural members, ranging in age from eight to nineteen, hail from diverse ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds and truly represent a cross-section of the state; and

WHEREAS, The program undoubtedly could not have achieved the success that it has today were it not for the service of its more than 54,000 volunteers, who have given generously of their time, talents, energies, and resources to the youth of Texas; and

WHEREAS, Throughout its proud history, the 4-H program has developed positive role models for countless Texans and through its innovative and inspiring programs, continues to build character and to instill the values that have made our state strong and great; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas, hereby designates October 4 thru October 10 as National 4-H Week in Texas and commend the 4-H Youth Development Program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the many men and women who have made the program a success.
