AGENDA ITEM # 1April 20, 1999

Hear any interested person and consider forming the next agenda or adding items to today's agenda.

ECO Resources Gary Spoonts and Jess Kennis informed the court ECO has worked approximately 18 months as the operator in Northridge Acres. TNRCC has been reviewing certain aspects of the water supply in the subdivision the last 4 to 5 years. There are 98 water connections in the subdivision. Eight lots have multiple connections (5/8" meter with more than 1 connection to the meter). In some instances there are 8 connections to one 5/8" meter. TNRCC has requested Northridge Acres comply with the 290 rules plus the subdivision has their own tariff requiring one meter per one connection.

Mr. Spoonts advised much dissention in the subdivision. When the elected leaders of the Northridge Water Supply Corporation stated for the record at their board meeting they had no intention of complying with the TNRCC rules, ECO Resources resigned effective May 28, 1999. ECO Resources felt they could not be involved with a water supply corporation which would not try to meet the minimum rules of TNRCC.

Mr. Spoonts advised Mr. Kennis attends all the meetings and is available for questions. Mr. Spoonts and Mr. Kennis are aware of the residents of Northridge Acres who appear in Commissioners Court, continuously call TNRCC, ECO and the Attorney General's office.

Mr. Kennis informed the court a lot of mis-information is being discussed among the subdivision owners. ECO is only interested in complying with TNRCC regulations.

Commissioner Heiligenstein asked if ECO Resources was involved in any contractual relationship with Williamson County to which Jess replied "No". "So you don't have to say this?" asked Commissioner Heiligenstein to which Jess replied "No". "We're not paying you one cent?" asked the Commissioner to which Jess replied "No".

In December, 1997, Northridge Acres had requested proposals for operations. Severin Trend (ST) Environmental Services had submitted a proposal and Mr. Kennis has been told ST will be awarded the proposal at the price quoted in the 1997 proposal.

There are 98 water connections in the subdivision. The former board of Northridge Water Supply Corporation sent notices to multi-connection residents stating they had 30 days to comply with TNRCC regulations or the water would be terminated.

Mr. Kennis, Mr. Spoonts, another operator and a Constable performed an on-ground inspection of the water connections and could see where the lines had been cut for service to the homes without water meters.

Commissioner Heiligenstein advised Northridge Acres resident Kenneth Snyder believed there were waivers available to the residents with multiple water meter connections. Mr. Kennis thought Northridge Acres residents believed they could revise their utility tariff to circumvent the TNRCC regulations - unfortunately for the residents, the request is submitted to TNRCC for approval.

When Commissioner Heiligenstein asked if such a request had been submitted to TNRCC, Mr. Kennis answered "No, Sir".

Judge Doerfler asked if the 8 residences hooked up to 1 water meter had individual septic tanks. Mr. Kennis advised the septic system was under the control of the county but his observation indicated 1 septic system all others running into drainage easements.

The court discussed the cost per individual hook-up. Mr. Kennis advised the City of Round Rock would be the wholesale wastewater provider and will be limited in their flows - he did not know if additional trailers on one lot would be hooked up to sewer.

SUBJECT: One Meter Per Residence Requirements

The following are excerpts from TNRCC rules. The numbers and letters in brackets indicate where these rules can be found in the Texas Administrative Code (30 TAC).

These rules apply to public water utilities:

One meter is required for each residential, commercial, or industrial service connection. An apartment building or mobile home park may be considered by the utility to be a single commercial facility for the purpose of these sections. The executive director may grant an exception to the individual meter requirement if the plumbing of an existing multiple use or multiple occupant building would prohibit the installation of individual meters at a reasonable cost or would result in unreasonable disruption of the customary use of the property. [291.89(a)(4)]

Use of meter. All charges for water service shall be based on meter measurements, except where otherwise authorized in the utility's approved tariff. [291.89(a)(1)]

These rules apply to retail public utilities and public water systems:

Each community public water system shall provide accurate metering devices at each service connection for the accumulation of water usage data. [290.44(d)(4)]

Connection - A single family residential unit or each commercial or industrial establishment to which drinking water is supplied from the system. [290.38]

Mr. John Ledesma
16202 Summit Dr.
Austin, Texas 78728-1147

Dear Sir or Madam:

This is to inform you that ECO Resources has identified your water connection located on your property at 16202 Summit Dr. as an illegal connection under the current requirements authorized by the TNRCC. Under the current rules and regulations all residences should have a meter connected to each single-family residence or have a non standard meter with back-flow preventer installed in the case of multiple hookups. Any illegal hookup means that there are multiple residences connected to a standard meter connection.

The Northridge WSC is endeavoring to obey those rules set down by the TNRCC and this rule was cited as being broken since 1996. A directive was given to the Homeowner's Association at that time to remedy this non-compliance. The Northridge WSC was given notice to terminate these customers that have been in non-compliance but the board mediated for these customers in their behalf and a compromise was reach that is describe in the following paragraph.

In an effort to satisfy the current requirement, the Northridge WSC will give each illegal hookup customer a choice to either purchase a standard meter for each residence or purchase a non-standard meter for the multiple connections. Be aware that the non-standard meter has a multiple base cost and is meant for commercial installations. All meter installation costs can be paid out over a twelve-month period. If we do not have a request to rectify your illegal hookup from you within thirty days, notice will be given to cut off your water. Simply contact ECO Resources at 335-7580 and they will help you with a plan to become properly connected and by explaining your rates and options.

Sincerely,

Fidel Acevedo

Re: Oak Brook Section 4B
Ryland Homes of Texas Limited Partnership
Building Line Variance Request

Dear Mr. England,

The Architectural Control Committee (ACC) for the Oak Brook Homeowners Association has reviewed the Ryland Home of Texas Limited Partnership variance request to allow a fifteen foot (15') front building setback line for Lots 9-11, Block H only in the above referenced proposed subdivision. The ACC has approved this request and concurs that granting this request will not cause the proposed homes to be incompatible with development within the property and surrounding area. Furthermore, the granting of such a variance shall not be considered to establish a precedent or future waiver, modification or amendment of the terms and provisions of the Declarations of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions. The ACC request that the final plat for Oak Brook Section 4B show a fifteen foot (15') front building setback line only for Lots 9-11, Block H, and all other lots shall have a twenty-five foot (25') front building setback line shown.

If you have any questions regarding this matter please call me at (512) 343-3255.

Sincerely,
Architectural Control Committee for

AGENDA ITEM # 11April 20, 1999

Discuss and take appropriate action concerning easement for proposed subdivision on County Road 201.

Commissioner Boatright advised 41' is owned by developer but that section is only a 20' easement.

Commissioner Boatright requested a public road because he felt a Homeowners Association would not be permanent residents in a manufactured home subdivision and the road assessment collections would not be sufficient for maintenance.

The developer re-stated a gated (private) community could not be offered? The commissioner answered he could not support it.

First Assistant County Attorney Dale Rye stated it would depend on what the instruments define as an easement. If the easement is granted to the landowner their heirs and assigns they could then dedicate the property to Williamson County.

Commissioner Limmer requested a minimum of 60' right-of-way to which Commissioners Boatright and Hays agreed.

The developer informed the court the owner behind the proposed subdivision had property which fronts another county road. He continued with most of this property being located in Burnet County and a Williamson County road follows the railroad. There is a "T" intersection on County road 201 approximately a mile from the entrance to this proposed subdivision which follows the railroad. It begins as a Williamson County Road and continues with the railroad into Burnet County. County Road 206 is also located in this area.

The developer asked if he could have a public road and gated entrance to which Mr. Rye and Commissioner Boatright answered "No". The developer asked what is necessary for the subdivision to have a gated (private) entrance-- the answer - a variance from Commissioners Court.

The developer is planning a concrete road.

Moved: Commissioner Boatright

Seconded: Judge Doerfler

Motion: To accept the easement if conveyed to Williamson County and is publicly maintained (not a gated community) 60' road which complies with Williamson County subdivision regulations. Note a portion of the 300' section is being built over an easement - not fee ownership.

Vote: Motion carried 4 - 0 with Commissioner Heiligenstein abstaining from the vote.

AGENDA ITEM # 13

April 20, 1999

Hear presentation and discussion on Sustainability Indicators Project.

Round Rock Director of Planning and Development Joe Vining advised Sustainability Indicators Project is a technical name. Sustainability is another wording for livability or quality of life. The project is to determine the quality of life in the Austin area (Travis, Williamson and Hays counties). The racially and gender balanced Executive Committee is composed of representatives from the three (3) counties who were selected from the three (3) E's - environment, economy and social equity. The definition is to provide for current needs without jeopardizing the ability of future generations to provide for their own needs.

Former head of St. Edwards University, now with Seton Health Care Ms. Pat Hays is the Chair, Joe Matlock and Mr. Vining along with some Sierra Club and S.O.S. members as well as social equity representatives are participating in the project. Commissioner Heiligenstein is a member of the Advisory Group. Website = www.ar.utexas.edu/Planning/Sustain/Survey.html.

Judge Doerfler will receive a letter requesting the appointment of two court members to attend the forum on June 4, 1999.

The sustainability movement began in the early 1970's. About ten (10) years ago Seattle and Portland became involved and has since moved across the United States. The goal is to initiate better relationships with other cities in the area. City of Austin and University of Texas Planning School and Greater School of Planning have contributed funds to the project and if an EPA grant is allowed will make a sizeable contribution toward the project.

Commissioner Heiligenstein suggested air quality is of major interest to Williamson County.

Judge Doerfler expressed his appreciation to Mr. Vining for the input.

Georgetown, TX 78626

Dear Judge Doerfler:

Over the past year, almost 50 Austin leaders from the environmental, economic development, and social equity communities have been meeting to discuss the possible development of community indicators for Central Texas. Over 150 communities in the US already use indicators as a kind of self-developed report card to keep the community's focus on a small set of high-priority objectives in all three of these areas – environment, economic development, and social equity.

Of course, true community indicators require extensive community dialogue. They also require community education – an understanding of the profound interdependence among environmental quality, economic development, and social equity. And they require technical expertise, so that we will have good measurements that can serve us well over time.

As part of our initial community involvement, we would like fifteen minutes to describe this vision and process to the County Commissioners. We would like to send someone to a meeting of your choice with some brief handouts and ideally an opportunity for initial feedback from your members – on what they would think would be most important for our community to achieve and measure.

I have attached a brief summary of our group, and a list of the Advisory Board and Executive Committee. I have asked a member of the Advisory Board to give your office a call, to see if we might make a presentation to the County Commissioners within the next couple of months.

We believe your organization represents a very important set of viewpoints that need to be fully integrated into this process. I know you already have busy meeting agendas, but we appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Hayes

RE: SUPPORT FOR BROAD-BASED WATER PLANNING

Dear Judge Doerfler:

With the passage of Senate Bill 1 (SB1), Texas has embarked on a new way of planning for state water needs. Instead of water plans being prepared at the state level, a diverse group of citizens representing a wide array of interests have been appointed to 16 regional water planning groups. State water planning will now be done from local and regional levels up. This grassroots process will result in 16 regional plans that will be consolidated into a state plan by the Texas Water Development Board by September 2001.

State funds will pay for the technical part of the planning process. Administrative costs must be paid by the planning groups themselves. The Lower Colorado Regional Water Planning Group (LCRWPG) needs $160,000 for the two-year planning cycle ending in September 2000.

These funds will be spent for public participation, meeting arrangements, mailings, meeting notices in newspapers and county court houses, minutes, and unreimbursed travel expenses, among other means of getting the word out. People who live in the region must be informed about and involved in the planning process if it is to be truly a grassroots effort. We plan to hold meetings in all areas of the basin and discuss such varied topics as population growth, water demands, alternative supplies and environmental protection. All of these efforts take money!

LCRWPG is asking you and about 170 other stakeholders in the region—including cities, counties, major water users and water purveyors—to contribute to defraying our administrative costs. We divided the budget in half. Half of the funds will be solicited from cities and counties on the basis of their current population, with larger cities and counties bearing more of the burden. We are asking water purveyors and water users with over 100 acre-ft/year of reported use to pay the other half, with each contributing according to the volume of water each uses.

The allocated share for Williamson County is $50.00. As a county official, you represent the small-scale water suppliers and water users within your county. Your participation is voluntary, but on behalf of all water users in our region, we strongly urge you to contribute at least this amount. Our hope is that the effort will be funded by stakeholders throughout the region and that all will make their voices heard in shaping the plan.

If you would like a member of the LCRWPG to meet with you to explain what we are doing and why we need your help, please call Melanie Gajdosik in Bastrop at 512-303-3943. We look forward to hearing from you, to receiving your contribution, and to working with you in developing the first SB1 regional water plan.

Sincerely,

John E. Burke, P.E., Chairman

LOWER COLORADO REGIONAL WATER PLANNING GROUP

WHY IS REGIONAL WATER PLANNING NEEDED?

In June 1997, Governor George W. Bush signed into law Senate Bill 1 (SB 1), comprehensive water legislation enacted by the 75th Texas Legislature. This comprehensive water legislation was an outgrowth of increased awareness of the vulnerability of Texas to drought and to the limits of existing water supplies to meet increasing demands as population grows. The state's population is expected to increase from its current level of about 19 million to more than 36 million people by the year 2050.

With passage of SB 1, the Legislature put in place a "bottom up" water planning process designed to ensure that the water needs of all Texans are met as Texas enters the 21st century. SB1 allows individuals representing 11 interest groups to serve as members of Regional Water Planning Groups (RWPG) to prepare regional water plans for their respective areas. These plans will map out how to conserve water supplies, meet future water supply needs and respond to future droughts in the planning areas.

In accordance with SB 1, regional water plans must be completed and adopted by September 1, 2000, and the Texas Water Development Board (TWDB) must approve and incorporate the regional water plans into a comprehensive state water plan by September 1, 2001. The water plans will be updated every five years.

After September 2001, TWDB financial assistance may be provided only to water supply projects that meet needs in a manner that is consistent with the approved regional water plans. In addition, the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission may not issue a water right for municipal purposes unless it is consistent with an approved regional water plan after 2001.

WHO IS PREPARING REGIONAL WATER PLANS?

SB 1 designated the TWDB as the lead state agency for coordinating the regional water planning process and developing a comprehensive state water plan. To accomplish these tasks, the TWDB developed planning guidance documents to govern how regional water plans will be developed, delineated planning areas and designated planning group representatives.

In February 1998 after extensive review and public comment, the TWDB adopted state and regional water planning rules, delineated 16 regional planning areas and selected 270 individuals from 11 SB 1-required interest groups to serve as initial members of the RWPG. The counties included in this region are highlighted on the map to the right, and the interest groups and their current representatives for this region are listed in the left side bar.

Each RWPG is responsible for preparing and adopting a regional water plan for their area. Most RWPG have hired consultants to assist with developing the engineering, socioeconomic, hydrological, environmental, legal and institutional components of the regional water plans. RWPG must provide for public input in the planning process, hold public meetings and furnish a draft report of the plan for public review and comment. SB 1 requires that each regional water plan address the needs of all water users and suppliers, except certain political subdivisions that decide not to participate. ➤

WATER

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST TO PREPARE A REGIONAL WATER PLAN?

SB 1 provides state financial assistance administered by the TWDB to assist in paying for the preparation of regional water plans. TWDB rules provide that state funds will be used to pay 100 percent of the direct planning costs, while RWPG will be required to cover 100 percent of their administrative costs.

All 16 RWPG complied with the August 1, 1998 deadline to submit to the TWDB completed grant applications for state financial assistance and scopes of work for preparing regional water plans. The costs for the 16 water plan preparation scopes of work total approximately $20.5 million. By December 1998, the TWDB awarded $7.56 million in planning grants appropriated by the Legislature for the Fiscal Year 1998-1999 biennium as partial payment toward the costs of developing regional water plans. Additional state financial assistance will be considered by the Legislature during its session convening in January 1999.

WHAT ARE THE STEPS IN PREPARING A REGIONAL WATER PLAN?

The planning process begins with the collection and analyses of many types of information related to water demands and supplies. RWPG members are responsible for deciding how future water needs in their respective region may be met. Each regional water plan will include information about water supplies and demand, water quality problems affecting water supply, and social and economic characteristics of the region. The plan also will identify water supply threats to agriculture and natural resources. Information concerning current preparations for drought and the status of other water plans in the region will be reviewed.

The following tasks are common to each regional water plan:

- ♦ Determine water demands
- ♦ Determine water supplies available for use during drought of record
- ♦ Determine where and when there is a surplus of supply or a need for additional supplies
- ♦ Determine social and economic impact of not meeting needs
- ♦ Develop plans that contain:
 - Specific strategies to meet future near-term needs (less than 30 years)
 - Options to meet long-term future needs (30-50 years)
 - Identified needs with no feasible solutions
- ♦ Identify ecologically unique streams and rivers
- ♦ Identify unique sites for reservoir construction
- ♦ Coordinate with neighboring regions concerning mutual interests and shared resources
- ♦ Propose regulatory, administrative or legislative recommendations to improve water resource management in the state

WHAT IF AN ENTITY DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE PLAN?

Participation in the regional planning process is not required. If a political subdivision or a RWPG decides not to participate, the TWDB will use existing local and regional water planning strategies identified in the TWDB-prepared 1997 state water plan and other study results to update the next state water plan. TWDB recommended water management strategies and/or recommendations for a specific entity and/or region are typically based on the least expensive solution.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATING IN DEVELOPING REGIONAL WATER PLANS?

- ♦ The opportunity to identify regional solutions to water supply problems with resulting lower water supply costs.
- ♦ The opportunity to obtain detailed current population data for small communities and rural areas in the region. For communities of less than 1,000 population, this information is not available in the 1997 state water plan, nor is it readily available from official sources.
- ♦ The opportunity to analyze water supplies, water demand and water resource management strategies for local communities at the level of detail agreed upon by the RWPG and identified in SB 1.
- ♦ The opportunity to determine regional water infrastructure needs and how best to meet those needs.
- ♦ The opportunity to identify and address local issues and concerns within the framework of SB 1 and regional water plans.
- ♦ The ability to receive low-interest TWDB loans for financing water supply projects.

81

WHAT DON'T REGIONAL WATER PLANS DO?

- ♦ Regional water plans do not change existing water law. Legislative action is needed for such changes.
- ♦ Regional water plans do not affect existing water rights or contracts.
- ♦ Regional water plans do not force water management strategies on an entity. If a proposed water management strategy is objectionable to the political subdivision supplying or receiving water supplies, then the strategy will not be included in the plan as a strategy for meeting the need of the objecting political subdivision. The entity must specify its reasons for objecting to a proposed water management strategy, and the strategy may still be applied to meet other needs.

HOW CAN I PARTICIPATE IN REGIONAL WATER PLANNING EFFORTS?

To participate in regional water planning efforts, you may attend any of the RWPG meetings or contact regional group members or the TWDB to voice your concerns or to obtain additional information. At the TWDB, you may contact Mr. David Meesey by calling (512) 936-0852 or by E-mail to dmeesey@twdb.state.tx.us. Also, you may visit the TWDB web site at www.twdb.state.tx.us.

Consider granting approval for change order on Georgetown Inner Loop Road.

County Engineer Joe England informed the court this change order involves the 2" overlay from Business 35 to the Unified Road System facility. The original construction plans for the section located between 1460 and Business 35 called for hot mix but we only put down 2 core surface treatment. Now we have the ability to finish the entire project with buttons and thermoplastic striping instead of Latex.

Commissioner Hays advised this $150,000.00 includes the installation of a french drain. The funds can be disbursed from the Inner Loop Certificate of Obligation which has a balance of $2. million. This loop enables continuous travel from Highway 29 to IH 35.

RE: Approval of Resale of Properties Auctioned by Taylor Independent School District, Trustee

Dear Judge Doerfler:

The Taylor Independent School District recently conducted a live auction of sixteen properties it had acquired as a result of previous tax sales. The attached report identifies the status of all sixteen properties offered for sale.

The auction should be considered a relative success. Thirty-two bidders registered for the auction, and of those nine offered the highest bids. The District approved all of the highest bids at their April 12, 1999 board meeting.

The bids offered for eight of the properties were for less than the taxes due against them, thus requiring approval of all taxing entities in the Judgment. Enclosed are originals of the proposed deeds on those properties for you to execute if the county is willing to agree to the sales. Once you have executed the original deeds for each property and had your signatures notarized, please return them to me for delivery to the purchaser.

Thank you for your cooperation and assistance with this matter. Please call me if you have any questions.

VOL.103, pg.722

Hear comments from commissioners.

Commissioner Heiligenstein advised the Elgin Bank case legislation is out of the Senate, on to the calendars and will probably be on the floor of the House next Monday - April 26, 1999. The builders are interested in killing the bill by any possible means. Don Lee has performed an excellent job Commissioner Heiligenstein advised and he feels the votes are there for the bill to pass. He also invited court members to call Mr. Lee and schedule time to visit and walk around the capitol with him as he introduces members of the Senate and House.

Commissioner Heiligenstein testified before the committee on the manufactured home rental bill requiring the platting and provision of basic infrastructure services to all manufactured homes rental subdivisions. The developer will be required to plat the subdivision and designate utility sources.

Commissioner Limmer discussed the statewide enhancement program (April 16 to August 9, 1999) asking if any of the court members will have submissions. He felt these type programs could be handled on a per site basis without creating another bureau.

He also discussed the discovery of the bodies of two small children murdered between noon and 4:30 p.m. in Brushy Creek in the Hutto - Norman's Crossing area late yesterday afternoon. He complimented the Sheriff on the manner in which the investigation is being handled. Presently there are 3 unsolved murders in eastern Williamson County.

Judge Doerfler announced this is County Government Week and invited all to attend the luncheon and program at the Unified Road System facility Thursday beginning at 11:30 a.m.. Commissioner Heiligenstein advised a County Government Week luncheon is also being held at the State Capitol on Thursday.
