*State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:*

THAT ON THIS, the 27th day of July, 1999, the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas, met in duly called session at the Courthouse in Georgetown, Texas, with the following members present:

John C. Doerfler, County Judge
Mike Haligenstein, Commissioner, Pct #1
Greg Boatright, Commissioner, Pct #2
David Hays, Commissioner, Pct #3
Frankie Linder, Commissioner, Pct #4
Nancy Rister, County Clerk

And at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following

RESOLUTION

Whereas, 1999 is the year of the All American City Award, which is the oldest and most respected award given to cities in America; and

Whereas, the City of Taylor, through its efforts in transportation, education, economic development, literacy, and parks, is a Williams County partner with the State of Texas, County of Williamson, neighboring cities, and private and non-profit organizations, and all segments of the community; and

Whereas, the City of Taylor is highlighted for citizen participation in Turn Around Taylor, for support of education with Temple College in Taylor and the technology center at the Taylor Public Library.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that We the Williamson County Commissioners Court, do hereby recognize and congratulate the City of Taylor as a participating finalist for All America City Award.
