AGENDA ITEM # 48AUGUST 31, 1999*Hear comments from commissioners.

Commissioner Heiligenstein expressed his appreciation to Judge Doerfler for an excellent job on the 1999/2000 budget.

County Attorney Gene Taylor reminded the court members of their sponsorship of the September 14, 1999, Domestic Violence seminar at Southwestern University. He invited them to attend the portion beginning at 12:30 p.m. and stay until at least 1:30 p.m. for introduction.

Judge Doerfler thanked the court members, elected officials and department heads for their cooperation in the 1999/2000 budget. The Judge felt this is a good budget but he is nervous about using so much cash ending balance. He hopes the economy stays good and cash ending balance stays strong and felt the needs were there to use the entire amount. He was interested in not raising taxes. The county is looking into road issues, Criminal Justice jail and Juvenile Service detention facility. "This next month brings some big issues to tackle in order to keep up with the challenge of our growing county", explained Judge Doerfler.
