STATE OF TEXAS

 COUNTY OF WILLIAMSON

KNOW ALL MEN BY THOSE PRESENT THAT ON THIS, the 8th day of February, 2000, the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas, met in duly called session at the Courthouse in Georgetown, Texas, with the following members present:

John C. Doerfler, County Judge
Michael Heiligenstein, Commissioner, Pct. #1
Greg Boatright, Commissioner, Pct. #2
Nancy Rister, County Clerk

and at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following

RESOLUTION FOR HOUSE INTERIM COMMITTEE ON COUNTY AFFAIRS

WHEREAS, the first interim charge for the House Committee on County Affairs is to "review the cost of statutory duties, including federal mandates, and the ability of county tax bases and fees to support such duties"; and

WHEREAS, District Clerks Child Support Registries, Sheriffs and Constables provide child support services for the Attorney General's Child support Enforcement Division; and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General's Office only reimburses county governments for 66% of the costs of issuing and service child support process; and

WHEREAS, county taxpayers are required to pay the remaining 33% of the state's costs for issuing and service child support process; and

WHEREAS, House bill 2354 (76th Legislative Session) that was sent to the Governor but was recalled for lack of funding, would have provided reimbursement to counties for the full cost of providing child support services for the Attorney General's Office;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE COMMISSIONERS COURT OF WILLIAMSON COUNTY urges the Interim Committee on County Affairs to recommend to the 77th legislature that counties be reimbursed for the full costs of providing child support services for the State of Texas.

Resolved this 8th day of February, 2000.
