After Judge Doerfler and Commissioner Boatright attended a meeting with Prime Strategies, Inc. last week they decided it was imperative to begin work with the certificate of obligation funds. Commissioner Boatright has his road projects in motion and Commissioner Limmer has three engineering proposals in hand for their portions of the $22.5M. The Judge suggested showing the residents of Williamson County the court is serious about improving roads and road safety in order to be effective in the upcoming bond issue.

Commissioner Heiligenstein discussed his plans for Anderson Mill Road, the school tract at Anderson Mill Road and Pond Springs Road, the possibility of realigning McNeil Road away from the railroad tracks for future expansion and the trail system.

Commissioner Hays is planning to spend a portion of the funds on County Road 110 from Highway 79 to Highway 29 as well as extension of the loop.
