RE: Deputy Confirmation Request

Judge John,

In accordance with Texas Government Code 86.011(a) I am submitting this request to serve as application in writing for the appointment of a Deputy Constable (non-paid) to assist me with the duties of the Office of Constable, Precinct One, Williamson County. Due to the workload specifically in the area of Mental Health, it would be quite beneficial as well as support with the execution of civil process. This (non-paid) Deputy would cover days when the paid Deputy staff is off (holidays, vacations, etc).

Currently I do not have any non-paid Deputies on staff at this time so this would fill the vacancy created when Jay Busby resigned in September of 2000.

The person to be considered for this proposed Deputy (non-paid) position by name is;

Brian J. Tanzola

Mr. Tanzola is currently a Lieutenant with the Austin Fire Department with special skills as a licensed paramedic & is a Williamson County resident.

Mr. Tanzola does qualify in the manner provided for Deputy Sheriffs as required under Texas Government Code 86.011(b). If you need any additional information regarding this request, please let me know.

Respectfully submitted,

Gary Griffin, Constable
Precinct One
