Order

The State of Texas }
County of Williamson }

Know All Men By These Presents:

That on this, the 25st day of June, A. D. 2002, the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas, met in duly called and convened lawful Session at the County Courthouse in Georgetown, Texas, with the following members present:

John Doerfler, County Judge, Presiding,
Mike Heiligenstein, Commissioner Precinct One,
Greg Boatright, Commissioner Precinct Two,
David Hays, Commissioner Precinct Three, and Frankie Limmer, Commissioner Precinct Four where, among other matters, came up for consideration and final adoption the following Order:

Whereas, Tax Code Section 11.184 authorizes counties to exempt from ad valorem taxation certain real property, buildings, and tangible personal property owned by qualified charitable organizations;

Whereas, the Comptroller of Public Accounts has determined that certain organizations, including without limitation the Masonic Lodges of the 47th Masonic District of Texas, are qualified charitable organizations eligible for an exemption under that Section; and

Whereas, the Williamson County Commissioners Court finds that it is in the best interest of the county and its citizens to exempt from taxation eligible property owned by all these qualified charitable organizations; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Williamson County Commissioners Court order, and does hereby order, that effective with the upcoming tax year, Williamson County exempts from taxation any property owned by any qualified charitable organization that the Chief Appraiser determines to be used primarily for charitable purposes.

The foregoing Order was lawfully moved by COMMISSIONER HEILIGENSTEIN, duly seconded by COMMISSIONER HAYS, and duly adopted by the Commissioners Court on a vote of four members for the motion and one opposed.

John Doerfler, Williamson County Judge
