Chief of Corrections Jack Hall discussed emergency budget amendment. He said that the month-to-month contract with Bell County has been rescinded due to problems in Bell County. He stated that the current prisoner count at the jail is 434, with 432 beds. There are 219 prisoners at the federal unit in Taylor. He said that the difficulty in housing prisoners off-site was transporting them to and from court. The Sheriff is looking into options for housing prisoners until the jail addition is finished.
