Comments from commissioners.

Commissioner Heiligenstein said that he believes that the state has authorized the County to voluntarily supplement the salaries of Child Protective Services workers, and he would like the court to consider it after his staff conducts some more research on the issue. He also wants to look at all County departments to see if reclassification of employees is necessary.

Commissioner Boatright stated that he has a problem with going over the 8% tax rate, and that he would be comfortable with going with an 8% rate and adding the County Judge's recommendations from the August 6, 2002 and August 13, 2002 budget work sessions, which would result in 3.5 million dollars needed from the cash ending balance.

Commissioner Hays said that he agrees with Commissioner Heiligenstein regarding general reclassification of county employees.
