AGREEMENT FOR ELECTRONIC KEYBOARD AND SPINET PIANO

Friends of the Georgetown Symphony Society (FOGSS) wishes to give and Williamson County Juvenile Services (WCJS) wishes to receive the following instruments (pianos):

Roland RD 100 full-size electronic keyboard with Two Roland Speakers and sustain pedal, including all connections; an "X" stand, adjustable bench, music rest, cloth dust cover and user's manual; and Everett spinet piano.

The parties agree as follows:

1. The pianos will be continuously housed at the Williamson County Juvenile Justice Center and will remain under the responsibility of the Williamson County Juvenile Justice Alternative Education Program (JJAEP) Principal. The pianos will not be moved to any other school in Williamson County.
2. The pianos will be used not only for classes designed by the principal but for performances and recreational use as supervised by educational staff and other such purposes as determined by the JJAEP Principal.
3. After receipt of the pianos and initial setup and tuning of the spinet, the future tuning, maintenance and repair of the pianos will be the responsibility of Williamson County Juvenile Justice Alternative Education Program.
4. FOGSS will have no responsibility for the pianos after they have been received by Williamson County Juvenile Justice Center and initial setup and tuning have been completed.

Charly,
Linda Taylor has asked me to send to you a proposed Agreement regarding the donation of a keyboard and piano from Friends of the Georgetown Symphony Society (FOGSS). Presumably you know the circumstances of this gift.

Attached is the Agreement. I hope it will meet with your approval. You may contact me by this email address or by phone at 868-9919.

FOGSS looks forward to continuing our budding relationship with the Williamson County Juvenile Justice Center, the dedicated principal and teachers at the school, and the students with whom we hope to have a positive impact.

Sincerely,
Barb Ramsey, President
FOGSS
