PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Lawsuit abuse is a financially crippling problem that effects all of us; and,

WHEREAS: The adverse effect of lawsuit abuse upon the lives and property of our citizens continues undiminished, despite the effort by government, citizens' organizations, and many individuals; and,

WHEREAS: The problems of lawsuit abuse touch and effect all segments of our society, undermining and eroding the moral and economic strength of our communities and their citizens.

NOW THEREFORE, the Williamson County Commissioner's Court does hereby proclaim the week of September 30, through October 4, 2003 as:

Lawsuit Abuse Awareness Week

in Williamson County and call up all the citizens to rededicate themselves to the ideals of equality and justice in their dealing with each other, and in giving proper cognizance to the valuable service rendered to the public by those who have chosen as their lives' work the administration of justice through the courts.
