Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Rural Capital Area Workforce Development Board, Inc., the Rural Capital Child Care Management Services and other local organizations, in conjunction with the National Association for the Education of Young Children, are celebrating the Week of the Young Child, April 18-24, 2004; and

WHEREAS, by calling attention to the need for high-quality early childhood services for all children and families within our community, these groups hope to improve the quality and availability of such services; and

WHEREAS, the future of our community depends on the quality of the early childhood experiences provided to young children today; and

WHEREAS, high-quality early childhood services represent a worthy commitment to our children's future; and

WHEREAS, the Rural Capital Area Workforce Development Board, Inc. and the Rural Capital CCMS will be honoring and recognizing those early childhood programs that meet the needs of our youngest citizens at events held in the Rural Capital Area during the Week of the Young Child.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the Members of the Williamson County Commissioners Court, do hereby proclaim April 18-24, 2004 as

“Week of the Young Child”

In Williamson County, and urge all residents to recognize and support the needs of young children in our community and honor those early childhood programs that meet those needs.

Signed and entered this 6TH day of April 2004

AGENDA ITEM 32

Discuss and take appropriate action to grant 3 new staff positions to the District Clerks Office.

District Clerk Bonnie J. Wolbrueck and County Budget analyst Ashlie Koenig addressed the Court. [Note that a visual reference to The 1985 Family Code book appeared to be ¼ inch thick and the current version to be 2.0 inches thick]. Ms. Wolbrueck stressed that her office is working at a high rate of efficiency, but that new duties assigned by state code have stretched the staff to a critical point. At this point, work is going undone and the District Clerks Office has been written up during audits for this reason. She further noted that one member of her management staff will leave her office when Judge Carnes moves all of his hearings to the new juvenile center in July. Funding will cost from $34,349 to $39,000 to finish the budget year.

Moved: Commissioner Boatright

Seconded: Commissioner Limmer

Motion: To grant three (3) new staff positions to the District Clerks Office.

Vote: 5 - 0
