CORE Office Interiors Terms & Conditions

1. It is understood that this is a custom-built furniture order. For this reason, upon order placement and acceptance by the relevant manufacturer, orders cannot be cancelled following order placement. We will do our best to honor a request in change, cancellation, or return. The customer remains liable for all changes as outlined in this proposal unless changes are approved and in writing. The customer may incur restocking, cancellation and/or change order charges.
2. Warranty: Your complete satisfaction and future business is our goal. We take pride in the quality of the products we represent. All applicable manufacturer warranties will be available upon request.
3. Shipment/Freight: We will not be liable for any delay or damages claimed to result from shipping or freight carrier. If buyer requests change or postponement of delivery beyond shipping date when we are ready to make delivery, we may store or transfer the goods to our warehouse and/or third-party warehouse at the customers expense. Upon notification to buyer of transfer to storage, the goods shall be deemed delivered to customer for all intents and purposes, including invoicing and payment.
4. Unless specifically noted in this Proposal, all installation and delivery services will be provided during normal working hours 8am to 5 pm Monday through Friday. If services are requested other than normal business hours, additional charges may be assessed.
